

Pregnant and Parenting Scholars Organization

The Pregnant and Parenting Scholars Organization aims to empower pregnant and parenting students with information regarding their rights while providing opportunities for students to share campus and community resources.

■ ELIGIBILITY

Membership in the Pregnant and Parenting Scholars Organization is open to all students at UMass Global who are expecting a child and/or currently parenting.

■ UNIQUE CONTRIBUTIONS

- Empower students to know their rights as a pregnant and parenting student
- Connect students with campus and community resources that will increase well-being and academic success
- Create a supportive environment for students to network with peers/alumni, share stories, celebrate successes, encourage one another, and discuss any obstacles or challenges they face in both their academic and personal lives
- Specialized support for a specific nontraditional student population
- Provide both peer and alumni mentorship opportunities
